Celebrating Greek Culture at the Panegyri Greek Festival in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, OH – Holy Trinity - St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church is proud to announce the 51st annual Panegyri Greek Festival, June 26-28, 2026. Experience the heart of Greek culture with delicious homemade dishes, live music and warm hospitality. Cincinnati, it's time to shout 'OPA!' as we bring Greece to you once again with the city's most beloved festival! Oloi Mazi! All Together!

Panegyri Event Highlights:

- New this year! Baklava Ice Cream. We've collaborated with Aglamesis Bros Ice Cream to infuse our homemade baklava into their French vanilla ice cream.
- New this year! Try our Sokolatopita aka Greek Chocolate Cake. Greeks like to drench their cakes in syrup. Using the best Belgium chocolates, this chocolate cake is soaked in chocolate syrup and finished with a smooth chocolate ganache.
- Live Music and Dance: Our live entertainment brings great energy and adds to our festival experience. The captivating sounds of bouzoukis from George Karras and the Kakias brothers fill the air outside. Our very own Giorgo and the Corner Band play inside the marketplace. Folk dancers of all ages will be on stage kicking up their heels all weekend long.
- Authentic Cuisine: We're serving homemade favorites that have been passed down through generations. From the grilled flavors of gyros and souvlaki to the hearty comfort of tiropitas and moussaka, our menu offers a variety of savory dishes. Indulge in a tempting spread of homemade cookies and pastries, including baklava, always a fan favorite! Be sure to try Laconian by Madtree, a limited-edition Greek-style lager brewed exclusively for the Panegyri!
- Church Tours: Step inside the breathtaking Holy Trinity-St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and experience its stunning neo-Byzantine architecture, vibrant iconography and timeless beauty. Join our guided tours to learn about traditions, symbolism and deep-rooted faith.
